7. Communication and Promotion Strategies with particular reference to the technological transfer of research results;
8. Ability to work in a team, problem solving, managing complex situations;
9. Good knowledge of the English language;
10. Knowledge and advanced use of Microsoft Office Suite;
11. Experience gained in managing the role's processes.

ART. 3

Admission requirements

For admission to the selection, the following requirements are required, under penalty of exclusion:

Per l’ammissione alla selezione è richiesto, a pena di esclusione, il possesso dei seguenti requisiti:

Candidates in possession of a qualification obtained abroad can participate in the selection by attaching the declaration of equivalence issued in accordance with current legislation, or alternatively, if they do not have one, the provision that recognizes the equivalence between the title held and the title required by the notice pursuant to art. 38 of Legislative Decree 165/2001, or the receipt for the start of the equivalence procedure of one's qualification to that required by the call, according to the procedure referred to in art. 38 of Legislative Decree 165/2001. The equivalence procedure must be started within the deadline of the call. The candidate is admitted to the selection with reserve if the measure has not yet been issued by the competent authorities, it being understood that the determination of equivalence of the qualification must compulsorily be possessed at the time of recruitment. It should be noted that simple Declarations of Value cannot be attached.

2. Particular qualification obtained from work experience in activities related to the required professional profile of at least 5 years, duly documented, given to Public Administrations, private companies or as a freelancer, reduced to two years if in possession of PhD degree relating to the topics covered by this call.

3. Italian citizenship or of one of the member states of the European Union. Italians not belonging to the Italian Republic are considered equivalent to Italian citizens.

4. Age not less than eighteen.

5. Possession of political rights: those excluded from the active political electorate cannot have access to employment.

6. Not having reported criminal convictions incompatible with the status of public employee that would result in the application of the disciplinary sanction of dismissal without notice by the Administration that announced the call.

7. Physical suitability for the employment.

8. To have complied with the laws on military recruitment, only for candidates born by the year 1985.

9. Not being dismissed or relieved from employment in a public administration for persistent insufficient performance or having been declared lapsed from state employment pursuant to art. 127, 1 paragraph, letter d), of the Consolidated Act of the provisions concerning the statute of civil employees of the State, approved with Presidential Decree January 10, 1957, no. 3, or fired for just cause or justified subjective reason from employment with a Public Administration.

According to D.P.C.M. of 7/2/1994, n. 174, citizens of the Member States of the European Union must also possess, under penalty of exclusion, the following requirements:

10. Possess civil and political rights also in the belonging or of origin States.

11. Possess, with the exception of the ownership of Italian citizenship, of all the other requirements provided for citizens of the Republic.

12. Have adequate knowledge of the Italian language.

According to art. 38 of Legislative Decree no. 165/2001, as integrated by art. 7, paragraph 1, of Law no. 97/2013, family members of citizens of the Member States of the European Union who do not have the citizenship of a Member State but who are holders of the right of residence or the right of permanent residence, as well as citizens of third countries who are holders of the EC long-term residence permit or who are holders of refugee status or subsidiary protection status are admitted. With reference to the latter type indicated in this paragraph, compatibly with the current legislative provisions on the matter, they must also possess the following additional requirements:
13. Possess civil and political rights also in the belonging or of origin States.

14. Possess, with the exception of the ownership of Italian citizenship, of all the other requirements provided for citizens of the Republic.

15. Have adequate knowledge of the Italian language.

The lack of any of the aforementioned specific requirements entails the automatic exclusion of the candidate from the benefit of the reserve.

The prescribed requirements must be met on the expiry date of the term established by this announcement for the presentation of the application.

Candidates are admitted to the competition with reserve.

The Administration can, with a motivated directorial decree, at any stage of the procedure, order the exclusion of the candidate for lack of the prescribed requirements.

The exclusion and the reason for the same are communicated to the candidate by certified e-mail.
